

WOMEN'S WHISKEY WAR IN BRILL.—VAN PELT, THE SALOON-KEEPER OF NEW VIENNA, SURRENDERING TO THE LADIES.—SKETCHED BY JOHN R. CHAFFIN.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
SEP 27 1887
24 109
CITY OF WASHINGTON

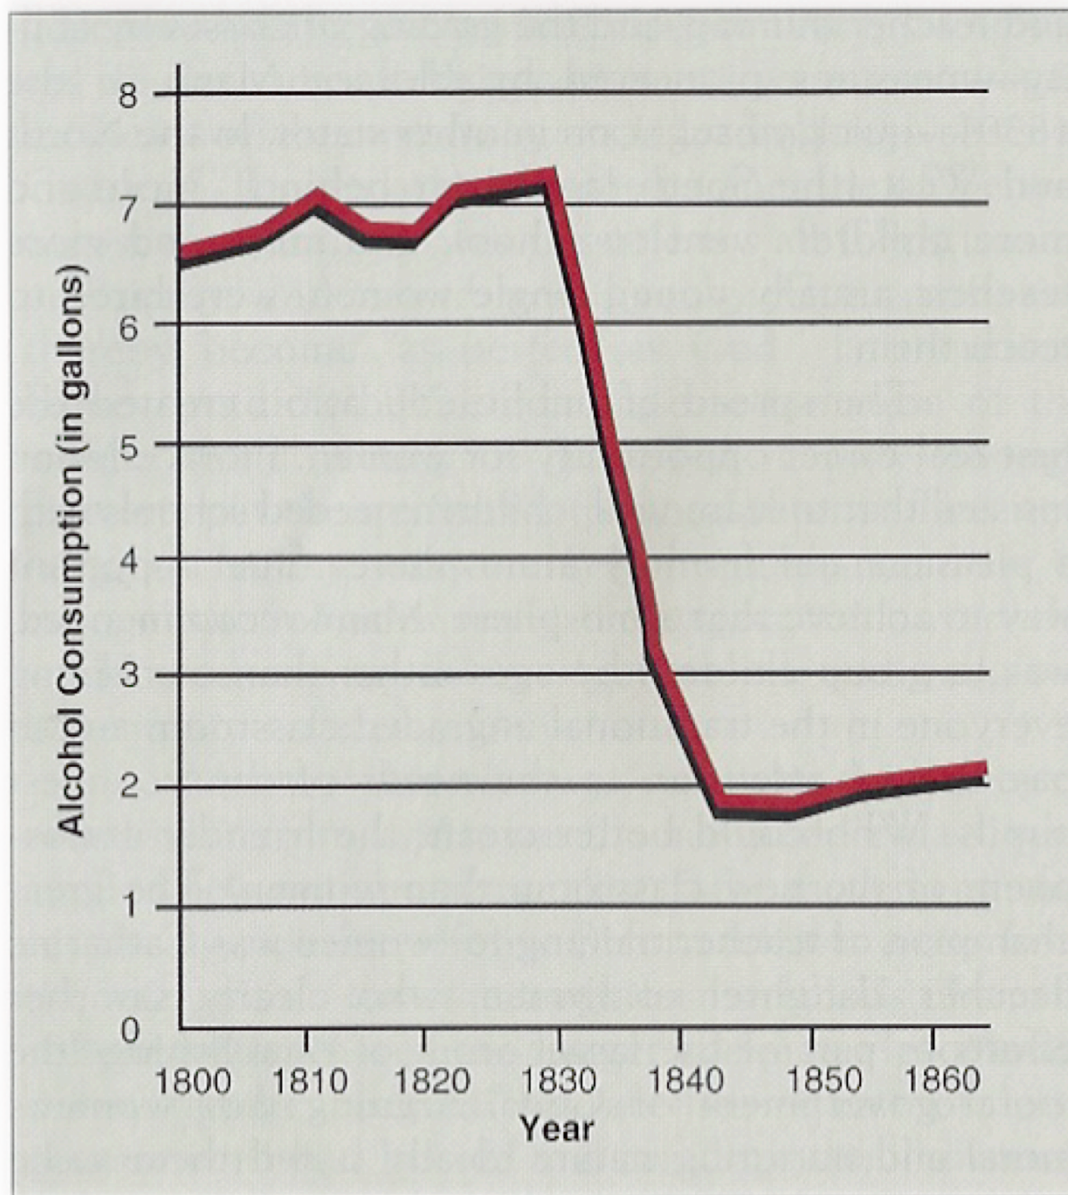

"WINE IS A MOCKER, STRONG DRINK IS RAGING,
AND WHOEVER IS DECEIVED THEREBY IS NOT WISE."

We the undersigned Family of _____
Agree with each other that we will not Buy, Sell or Use intoxicating Liquors as a beverage and will use our Best Endeavors to Curtail and Prevent the Sale and use of the Same by others.

Signatures.	Signatures.	Signatures.
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Alcohol Consumption in the U.S.: 1800-1860

Women's Rights

Republican Motherhood: The Copley Family, c. 1776, by John Singleton Copley; Andrew W. Mellon Fund, image

Cult of Domesticity

Home Sweet Home

Amelia Bloomer

I grew up so thoroughly imbued with women's rights that it was the most important question of my life from a very early day.

—LUCRETIA MOTT

“To deny political equality is to rob the ostracised of all self-respect . . .”

-Elizabeth Cady Stanton

“Now all we need is to continue to speak the truth fearlessly, and we shall add to our number those who will turn the scale to the side of equal and full justice in all things.”

- Lucy Stone

Seneca Falls Convention 1848

WHAT, DINNER NOT READY YET! WHAT HAVE YOU BEEN DOING?

A PICTURE OF THE FUTURE BY OUR "MUCH MARRIED" ARTIST.